

Public Safety Day

Saturday, September 17, 2016

10:00-11:00am

Sensory Friendly Access Hour

The Access Hour is a wonderful opportunity for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families to spend quality time with local police, fire fighters and other first responders before the Safety Day opens to the public.

10:00am-2:00pm Open to the General Public

2626 Eastern Blvd 21220
(next to the Exxon Tiger Mart)

Join The Baltimore County Police & Community Relations Councils and Pathfinders for Autism for a fun afternoon of games, activities and experiential learning about keeping your family safe.

Interact with: First Responders - Police, Fire and EMS Police K-9 Unit

See demonstrations of Police K-9 dogs in action Fire Dept. rescues using Jaws of Life

Explore: Police cars and motorcycles Ambulances Fire engines Police armored car Baltimore County Police helicopter

